HEALTH

According to the United Health Foundation, Georgia is ranked 41st in the nation for overall health. The current session of the Georgia General Assembly is in full swing, as committees are hearing and vetting legislation every day and the House is beginning to work on the fiscal 2019 budget. Below are some highlights of legislation potentially impacting the work of Georgia’s nonprofits.

Healthcare reform planning, research, and analysis. These new entities would serve as coordinating platforms for health care reform planning, research, and analysis.

The Southeastern Council of Foundations strives to support Members and grantmakers with access to education, resources and networking by serving as a convener and facilitator, offering a diverse range of voices and perspectives. We do not endorse colleague organization views, but rather aim to provide access to a broad range of information and resources to increase grantmaking impact and develop philanthropic leaders throughout the region.

The Southeastern Council of Foundations is a section 501(c)(3) organization established under Section 201 of the Internal Revenue Code. It is a section 501(c)(3) organization, and as such, all contributions to the Southeastern Council of Foundations are tax deductible. The organization’s tax ID is #33-0857259.

To subscribe to future GGA communications, please click here.

Yvonne Whitaker, NCR Corporation

The Southeastern Council of Foundations mission is to support philanthropic organizations with access to education, resources and networking by serving as a convener and facilitator, offering a diverse range of voices and perspectives. We do not endorse colleague organization views, but rather aim to provide access to a broad range of information and resources to increase grantmaking impact and develop philanthropic leaders throughout the region.

To subscribe to future GGA communications, please click here.

For questions regarding the Georgia Grantmakers Alliance (GGA), please call (404) 524-0911.