the same breakout room. For more detailed instructions view Zoom support for "web presence with your phone. Otherwise your audio and web presence may not end up in phone, please be sure that you have entered your participant ID on the phone to link your inform our conversation:

Join your GGA colleagues at 3:00pm on Thursday, June 25, for our next statewide 30 deadline to pass the budget, and an election year should make for an interesting run to November ballot a constitutional amendment that would restrict lawmakers' ability to divert tire sales. Those fees fund the Hazardous Waste and Solid Waste Trust Funds, which are added language from another bill that would increase fees on solid waste disposal and new passed their respective chambers in March. Last week, a House committee unanimously neighboring states. Two bills seeking to limit the importation of coal ash from other states Environment:

Monday, June 22.

assistance and/or trainings for foster parents. HB 912 was also amended to include foster parent. Foster parent recruitment remains a major challenge in Georgia. This may pertaining to the Lake Lanier Development Authority. The bill was recommended for Committee. Note: Much of the child welfare content of this bill was amended to HB 912, so language had been previously removed in the Senate version. The House Education assessments for grades K-5 to ensure students are on grade level by 6th grade. This among other tax provisions, changes – were amended to HB 846, a bill regarding overpayment of income taxes. HB tax brackets into one creating a flat tax, reducing the top rate from 5.75 percent to a 5.375 million per year. This bill passed the House and was recommended for passage by the Senate Rules Committee. We will continue to follow the adoption tax credit provision but likely will be taken off the table for debate and a vote by the full body before situations and allows APRNs and PAs to practice in places in addition to the supervising agencies to assist in dependency/ delinquency and voluntary custody cases; and allow foster children and their foster families, relative caregiver, or fictive kin; establish that states. The bill passed the Senate and was recommended for passage by the House veto, or take no action, in which case it becomes law automatically at the completion of the qualified food banks, and for the use of food and food ingredients donated to qualified rests with the House Rules Committee.

telehealth, and vice versa. The interstate compact, with eight currently interested states, advance to the floor for a vote.

now rests with the House Rules Committee, which has the power to determine which bills committee. The bill was recommended for passage. In the Senate, the bill passed with an amendment that brought the language of HB 912 into the bill. In the House, the bill was referred to the

Education:

In the Senate, the bill passed with an amendment that brought the language of HB 912 into the bill. In the House, the bill was referred to the Education

The bill has already passed in the Senate and is now in the House Education ordinance that would have removed a sunset provision on sales and use taxes for nonprofit health centers. The bill passed the Senate but was amended in the House, which added language that would repeal the sunset provision. The bill has not yet been recommitted to the Senate and could be considered permits for the removal of ash from another state for disposal in Georgia. The bill has already passed in the Senate and is now in the House on the

among other tax provisions, changes – were amended to HB 846, a bill regarding overpayment of income taxes. HB tax brackets into one creating a flat tax, reducing the top rate from 5.75 percent to a 5.375 virtual hearings that have been ongoing throughout the year. The bill was recommitted to the Senate Rules Committee and has not yet been heard in that chamber.

Sine Die

Despite the obstacles, legislators are doing their best to make law about issues they others that members are working to pass as well, despite the cumbersome protocols the Senate Rules Committee. We will continue to follow the adoption tax credit provision – which had been removed in the Senate version. The bill was recommitted to the Senate Education assessments for grades K-5 to ensure students are on grade level by 6th grade. This among other tax provisions, changes – were amended to HB 846, a bill regarding overpayment of income taxes. HB tax brackets into one creating a flat tax, reducing the top rate from 5.75 percent to a 5.375

Sine Die

virtual hearings that have been ongoing throughout the year. The bill was recommitted to the Senate Rules Committee and has not yet been heard in that chamber. In the House, the bill was referred to the Education

ordinance that would have removed a sunset provision on sales and use taxes for nonprofit health centers. The bill passed the Senate but was amended in the House, which added language that would repeal the sunset provision. The bill has not yet been recommitted to the Senate and could be considered

permits for the removal of ash from another state for disposal in Georgia. The bill has already passed in the Senate and is now in the House on the

among other tax provisions, changes – were amended to HB 846, a bill regarding overpayment of income taxes. HB tax brackets into one creating a flat tax, reducing the top rate from 5.75 percent to a 5.375

The bill has already passed in the Senate and is now in the House Education

ordinance that would have removed a sunset provision on sales and use taxes for nonprofit health centers. The bill passed the Senate but was amended in the House, which added language that would repeal the sunset provision. The bill has not yet been recommitted to the Senate and could be considered permits for the removal of ash from another state for disposal in Georgia. The bill has already passed in the Senate and is now in the House on the

Among other tax provisions, changes – were amended to HB 846, a bill regarding overpayment of income taxes. HB tax brackets into one creating a flat tax, reducing the top rate from 5.75 percent to a 5.375

Sine Die

virtual hearings that have been ongoing throughout the year. The bill was recommitted to the Senate Rules Committee and has not yet been heard in that chamber. In the House, the bill was referred to the Education

ordinance that would have removed a sunset provision on sales and use taxes for nonprofit health centers. The bill passed the Senate but was amended in the House, which added language that would repeal the sunset provision. The bill has not yet been recommitted to the Senate and could be considered permits for the removal of ash from another state for disposal in Georgia. The bill has already passed in the Senate and is now in the House on the